London Economic Summit

1104. SHRI JASWANT SINGH: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the outcome of the London Economic Summit;

(b) whether it is a fact that on the eve of the Summit the Prime Minister took some initiative in the matter;

(c) if so, what are the details in this regard and the results thereof; and

(d) if not, what are the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI A. A. RAHIM): (a) The London Economic Summit took place in June 1984. It is one of the annual series of meetings held by Britain, France, Italy, Canada, Japan, FRG, and the U.S. and the President of the EEC Commission. The Summit issued the London Economic Declaration, a Declaration on East-West relations, a Declaration on Democratic Values, a Declaration on International Terrorism and a Statement on the Iran-Iraq war.

(b) Prior to the London Summit, Shri L. K. Jha visited London, Washington, Ottawa, Paris, Bonn and Rome as the personal emmissary of the Prime Minister. He carried with him letters from the Prime Minister addressed to the respective Heads of Government drawing attention to the grave economic crisis being faced by developing countries, the present impasse in the North-South Dialogue, and, stressing the need for an impetus to such a dialogue.

(c) and (d) The purpose of Shri L. K. Jha's mission was to explain our approach on North-South issue to the leaders of the major industrialised countries and to explore the possibility of beginning some dialogue on these issue. The suggestions made by us in this regard received considerable attention at the London Summit and a personal emissary of the British Prime Minister visited Delhi after the Summit to convey the response.

The London Economic Declaration issued by the Summit notes the concerns of the developing countries and the difficulties faced by them and recognises the reality of interdependence. However, it reaffirms the primary role of the existing Bretton Woods institutions for continuing discussions on issues relating to money, finance and development and does not offer much hope of a new impetus to the present stalemate in the North-South Dialogue. On the whole the Declaration is not forthcoming on issues of concern to developing countries.

राजभाषा विभाग का निरीक्षण विंग

1105. श्री राम नरेश कुशवाहा : क्या गृह मंत्री यह बताने की कृपा करेंगे कि :

(क) क्या यह सच है कि राजभाषा विभाग का निरीक्षण विंग जो दिल्ली स्थित विभिन्न मंत्रालयों, विभागों तथा कार्यालयों में हिन्दी के प्रयोग से संबंधित आदेशों और अनुदेशों पर निगरानी रखता है, कमजोर है ;

(ख) क्या यह भी सच है कि देश के विभिन्न राज्यों में स्थित केन्द्रीय सरकार के सम्बन्ध कार्यालयों का निरीक्षण करने के लिये उक्त विभाग में केवल एक ही उप-सचिव है जिसके अधीन दो अथवा तीन अधिकारी कार्य कर रहे हैं और इस प्रकार निरीक्षण विंग को अप्रभावी बना रहे हैं ; और

(ग) पिछले दो वर्षों के दौरान निरीक्षण विंग द्वारा किये गये निरीक्षणों के आंकड़े क्या है ?
